

Morro Bay Junior Lifeguard Program

Junior Lifeguard Volunteer Tryout Information

Junior Lifeguard Volunteers are instructors, aides, and beach lifeguards in training. They assist staff in the daily operations of the program. Volunteers learn role modeling and mentoring skills while becoming familiar with lifeguard responsibilities. Volunteers practice observation and hazard recognition skills. The goal of the Junior Lifeguard Volunteer program is to prepare them to participate in the tryouts and interviews for surf lifesaving jobs including instructors, aides, and beach lifeguards.
